

CONTENTS

About the authors xv

Preface xvi

How to use this book xvii

Key features of this book xx

Acknowledgements xxi

PART ONE Communications background and theories 1

---

01 New marketing communications 3

Learning objectives 3

Introduction to new integrated marketing communications 4

The revolution has started 7

Marketing utopia is here 12

Climb the ladder (of engagement) 17

Analyse, create, integrate and be relevant 21

The race is on 27

Top 10 Tips for world-class marketing 29

Key points from Chapter 1 30

References and further reading 30

Further information 31

02 Branding 33

Learning objectives 33

Introduction to branding 34

Brand components 45

The branding process 48

Brand summary and the challenges ahead 62

Conclusion 66

Key points from Chapter 2 66

References and further reading 67

03 Customer relationship management 69

- Learning objectives 69
- Introduction to CRM 70
- The power of CRM 71
- What causes CRM failure? 73
- What causes CRM success? 76
- CRM components required 77
- CRM creation and maintenance 91
- Costs and timescales 95
- CRM summary and challenges 97
- Key points from Chapter 3 97
- References and further reading 98
- Further information 99

04 Buyer behaviour 101

- Learning objectives 101
- Introduction to understanding customer buying behaviour 102
- Models of buyer behaviour 113
- Psychological variables 122
- Summary and conclusion 135
- Key points from Chapter 4 136
- Appendix 4.1: Hofacker's online information processing 137
- Appendix 4.2: The post-PC customer 138
- Appendix 4.3: Unilever's five steps to change behaviour 139
- References and further reading 139
- Further information 142

05 Communications theory 143

- Learning objectives 143
- Introduction to communications theory 144
- Communications models 150
- Future communications models 157
- Key points from Chapter 5 160
- References and further reading 161
- Further information 162

- 06 Marketing communications research 163
- Learning objectives 163
  - Introduction to market research and decision making 164
  - Information and competitive advantage 166
  - The market research process 170
  - Types and costs of research 173
  - In conclusion 188
  - Key points from Chapter 6 189
  - References and further reading 189
  - Further information 190
- 07 Media buying and planning 191
- Learning objectives 191
  - Introduction to the media mix 192
  - Which media is most popular? 204
  - Summary 214
  - Key points from Chapter 7 214
  - References and further reading 214
  - Further information 215
- 08 Marketing communications agencies 217
- Learning objectives 217
  - Agency types 218
  - Agency structure 220
  - Agency remuneration 224
  - Agency relationships – selection and retention 226
  - Key points from Chapter 8 240
  - References and further reading 240
  - Further information 241
- 09 International marketing communications 243
- Learning objectives 243
  - The globalization of markets 244
  - International difficulties 248
  - International mistakes 255
  - Strategic global options 257

Agencies in the international arena	262
In conclusion	264
Key points from Chapter 9	264
References and further reading	265

10 The marketing communications plan 267

Learning objectives	267
Introduction to the SOSTAC® marketing communications plan	268
Situation analysis	271
Objectives	276
Strategy	278
Tactics	282
Action	284
Control	285
Key points from Chapter 10	290
References and further reading	290
Further information	291

11 The changing communications environment 293

Learning objectives	293
Introduction	294
Politics (regulations and laws)	295
Do consumers need more protection?	296
Self-regulation: codes of practice	301
Code of Advertising Practice	302
Economics	304
Social change	305
Technology	309
Summary	314
Key points from Chapter 11	314
References and further reading	314
Further information	316

PART TWO Communications tools 317

---

12 Selling, social selling, sales management and key account management 319

Learning objectives	319
Introduction	320

Managing the sales force	325
Extending the sales force	329
Advantages and disadvantages	333
Summary	334
Key points from Chapter 12	334
References and further reading	334
Further information	334

13 Advertising 335

Learning objectives	335
From Mad Men to Maths Men – the changing nature of advertising	336
Data-driven ad campaigns	340
New data-driven targeting tools for advertising	342
New forms of advertising	348
Managing a ‘traditional’ TV ad campaign	352
Managing a location-based ad campaign	362
Case study 13.1: Pay-per-click ads boost sales: Halfords Autocentres	367
Case study 13.2: Pay-per-click ads boost ROI by optimizing: Cover my Cab	370
Case study 13.3: Shock tactics: viral TV ad reduces road deaths	372
Advantages and disadvantages	373
Key points from Chapter 13	374
References and further reading	374
Further information	375

14 Publicity and public relations 377

Learning objectives	377
Introduction	378
New and old PR tools	382
Advantages and disadvantages of PR	392
Case study 14.1: The gnome story that went viral	398
Case study 14.2: The Snack Dash viral game	401
Case study 14.3: Virgin Mobile’s new tariff	402
Advantages and disadvantages summary	404
Key points from Chapter 14	404
References and further reading	404
Further information	405

15 Sponsorship 407

Learning objectives	407
Introduction	408

New and old sponsorship tools	410
Managing a sponsorship programme	412
Advantages and disadvantages of sponsorship	417
Case study 15.1: Liberty Insurance and GAA	419
Case Study 15.2: Citroën and beauty	422
Key points from Chapter 15	424
References and further reading	425
Further information	425

16 Sales promotions, gaming and content marketing 427

Learning objectives	427
Introduction	428
Gamification	433
Virtual promotions	435
Managing sales promotions	437
Content marketing	442
Case study 16.1: Content marketing delivers competitive advantage – Kelly HR	444
Case study 16.2: Topline’s advertising boosts Christmas promotion	448
Case study 16.3: V&A activate young tech-savvys in collaborative digital art	453
Case study 16.4: Muzu.TV film soundtrack adds value and boosts engagement	454
Advantages and disadvantages	456
Key points from Chapter 16	456
References and further reading	456
Further information	457

17 Direct mail (including e-mail) 459

Learning objectives	459
Introduction to direct mail (and e-mail)	460
Opt-in e-mail and mobile messaging	463
Managing a direct mail campaign	467
Case study 17.1: PayPal – helping Britain’s online retailers to go mobile	471
Case study 17.2: Acronis automated marketing campaign	473
Advantages and disadvantages	479
Key points from Chapter 17	479
References and further reading	480
Further information	480

18 Exhibitions, conferences and events 481

- Learning objectives 481
- Introduction 482
- Managing exhibitions 483
- 12 reasons for poor performance 492
- Case study 18.1: Sedgwick at RIMS Monte Carlo 493
- Advantages and disadvantages 494
- Key points from Chapter 18 495
- References and further reading 495
- Further information 495

19 Merchandising and point of sale 497

- Learning objectives 497
- Introduction 498
- New digital challenges and opportunities 498
- Case study 19.1: Useful shopping apps can help 500
- Retailer empathy 501
- Retail strategy 502
- Merchandising tactical tools 504
- Measuring merchandising effectiveness 506
- Case study 19.2 Campbell's Soup: where packaging and point-of-sale form a foundation for an integrated campaign 507
- Case study 19.3: Thomson Tours 509
- Advantages and disadvantages 510
- Key points from Chapter 19 510
- References and further reading 510
- Further information 511

20 Packaging 513

- Learning objectives 513
- Introduction 514
- The designer's tools 518
- The packaging design process 524
- Case study 20.1: Brand range development in India 527
- Advantages and disadvantages 530
- Key points from Chapter 20 530
- References and further reading 530
- Further information 531

21	Owned media – websites and social media	533
	Learning objectives	533
	Owned media	534
	Successful websites	534
	Successful social media	547
	Case study 21.1: Brazilian football club creates immortal fans via social media	553
	Case study 21.2: The Damned United , Brian Clough microsite	555
	Case study 21.3: American Greetings e-cards optimized landing pages	557
	Case study 21.4: Social media helps stop smoking	559
	Advantages and disadvantages of permanent media	562
	Conclusion	562
	Key points from Chapter 21	563
	References and further reading	563
	Further information	564
	Index	565

All lecturers who use this sixth edition can obtain instructor support materials from Kogan Page – visit www.koganpage.com/marketingcommunications