

CONTENTS

About the contributors x
Foreword by David Sheffield xvi
Acknowledgements xviii

Introduction 1

PART ONE Mapping the mindfulnessat-work phenomenon 9

---

01 Mindfulness is on a roll 11

Margaret Chapman-Clarke

Mindfulness: an inside-out OD strategy 12

Mindfulness: an intervention to develop embodied emotional intelligence (EQ) 12

Coming to autoethnography 13

Coming to mindfulness 15

References 17

Further reading 18

Resources 18

02 Mindfulness research: What counts as evidence, truth and knowledge in workplace MBIs? 19

Margaret Chapman-Clarke

Introduction 19

The nature of ‘truth’ and the post-modernist HR practitioner 20

The map is not the territory, just one map: criticisms of workplace MBIs 22

Core to organizational MBIs: adaptation without dilution 23

Workplace MBIs: from the margins to the mainstream 24

Evidence-based and evidence-informed practice:
closing the gap 35

What do we mean by mindfulness?	36
The evidence that mindfulness works	39
References	42
Resources	45

03 Mindfulness research in practice 46

Margaret Chapman-Clarke

Introduction	46
The neuroscientific case for mindfulness and compassion	47
Workplace MBIs: towards an integrative approach?	53
Mindfulness and wellbeing	56
Conclusion	64
Implementing a workplace MBI	65
Appendix 3.1: Inquiry in mindfulness-based interventions (MBIs)	66
Appendix 3.2: Measuring mindfulness issues and tools	68
References	71
Further reading	72

PART TWO Contributor stories (case studies) 75

---

04 Mindfulness in a media world: SMG 77

Liz Nottingham and Susan Peacock

Coming to mindfulness	77
Introduction	78
The SMG MBI: The Mindful Advantage	83
Spreading the word	91
Final reflections	91
Concluding comments – key takeaways!	92
References	92

05 Creating a mindful culture within financial services: Capital One 94

Roz Kings and Emma Wardropper

Coming to mindfulness	94
Introduction	95
The organization: Capital One	95
Final reflections	111
References	112

- 06 Bringing mindfulness to the social care workplace: Compassion in action 113
Sandra Gyaltzen and Jane Kellock
- Coming to mindfulness 113
  - Introduction 116
  - Bringing mindfulness to social care 117
  - Our shared purpose: drivers behind our MBIs 121
  - Implementation 125
  - What we experienced 129
  - Evaluating the MBIs: what worked 133
  - Dissemination of our findings 138
  - Integrating mindfulness into everyday life: an ongoing journey 139
  - Appendix 6.1: Mindfulness-based Living Course curriculum 140
  - Appendix 6.2: Sandra's Mindfulness-based Living Course feedback sheet 142
  - References 143
  - Further reading 148
- 07 Mindfulness skills courses in the NHS: Implementing mindfulness-based cognitive therapy (MBCT) in a secondary care psychology and psychotherapy service 149
Dr Kamila Hortynska
- Coming to mindfulness 149
  - Introduction 150
  - Setting things up 151
  - Implementation 155
  - Outcomes and impact 168
  - Reflections and recommendations 171
  - Final word 176
  - Ten tips for using mindfulness in the NHS organization 177
  - References 178
  - Note 180
- 08 Appraising the implementation of mindfulness within a strategic approach to psychological health 181
Sally Rose
- Coming to mindfulness 181
  - The context in which mindfulness has been implemented 182
  - Appraising implementation of mindfulness within the Staff Counselling and Psychological Support Service 187

Cross-organizational collaborations and applications	195
Learning from this organizational implementation of mindfulness	203
Concluding thoughts	206
Acknowledgement	207
References	207

09 Making mindfulness inclusive to all stakeholders in a university setting 209

Dr Jo Bramham and Dr Karen Neil

Coming to mindfulness	209
Introduction	211
Factors influencing wellbeing strategy in the higher education sector	211
The mindfulness skills programme	214
Evaluation	219
Reflections on lessons learned	229
Review	235
Appendix 9.1: Mindfulness programme brochure	240
References	242
Recommended resources	244

PART THREE Critical reflections on mindfulness at work 245

---

10 Making Mindfulness Meditation accessible and meaningful 247

Mark Leonard

Coming to mindfulness	247
Introduction	248
From Buddhist origins to evidence-based workplace training	249
The standard mindfulness model	251
Understanding the mind–body connection better	253
Interpersonal effects of Mindfulness Meditation	257
Going deeper into the process	258
Stress, workplace and society	260
Mindfulness and engagement	260
What would a mindful organization look like?	262
Conclusion	264
References	264

- 11 A mindful path to a compassionate cultural diversity 266
Byron Lee
- Coming to mindfulness 266
  - Modern-day prejudice and discrimination 268
  - Mindfulness and inclusion 271
  - A mindful path to working with bias, prejudice and discrimination 272
  - The transformational power of mindfulness 275
  - Developing a compassionate critical consciousness 277
  - Mindfulness and stereotyping threat 279
  - Mindfulness and letting go of anger 280
  - A compassionate cultural wisdom 282
  - Final reflections 283
  - References 284
- 12 Exploring the role of mindfulness and compassion in developing ‘insight-based HR’ 288
Robert Broughton and Sally Roberts
- Coming to mindfulness 288
  - Introduction 289
  - Our work at the Northern Centre for Mindfulness and Compassion 290
  - Exploring insight 296
  - The role of insight in human resources 299
  - Insight-based HR 302
  - Looking to the future 311
  - Acknowledgements 313
  - References 313
  - Note 316
- Index* 317