

CONTENTS

List of tables and figures xi

Contributors xiv

Foreword xxix

Introduction xxxi

Special Report: MRS at 70 xxxvi

Special Report: PwC – The business of evidence lv

01 Tools for a digital world 4

John Gambles, Quadrangle

Introduction: the first and second waves of digital 4

The value platform of research 5

The two most important objectives for decision makers 6

The uses of research 8

The second wave of digital 9

The value of research in a digital world 11

Research and data together 12

The future: integrated research and data 14

02 Widening access to qualitative research participation: giving everyone their say 18

Maya Middlemiss, Saros

The craft of qualitative research 18

Recruiting participants for qualitative research 21

The benefits and challenges of widening participation in qualitative research 26

Harnessing impact through qualitative research 28

Conclusion 28

Case study: Diet food product 29

- 03 Using behavioural economics in healthcare research 34
Jonathan Fletcher and Dan Coffin, Illuminas
- The challenge of behavioural economics 34
  - Exploratory behavioural economics: The marriage of BE and MR 35
  - Analysis and interpretation 37
  - Behavioural economics in healthcare 40
  - Prescription under uncertainty 40
  - When is a behavioural economics approach indicated? 44
- 04 Insight management 46
Lucy Morris, Alexandra Wren and Mita Shaha, Spinach
- Adapting communications 46
  - The challenge 50
  - Qualitative research driven by consumer-centric design 53
  - Conclusion 56
- 05 Understanding and accounting for cultural bias in global b2b research 59
Conor Wilcock, B2B International
- An introduction to survey response styles 61
  - Trends and contributing factors 64
  - Attempts to reduce or eliminate cultural bias 66
  - Conclusion: 'A problem well stated' 68
- 06 The challenges of media research 72
Simon Shaw, Trinity McQueen and Royal Mail
- The growth of media channels 72
  - Case study 1: The private life of mail 74
  - Summary learnings for commercial ethnography 80
  - Case study 2: The medium and the message 81
  - Using behavioural economic thinking in advertising and media research 89

07 Blueprint research 92Janice Guy, Jungle Green and Northern Rail*

- The business need 92
- Setting up the scheme 93
- Aims of the scheme 94
- Blueprint research project 95
- Research scope 97
- Impacts of the scheme 101
- Where the scheme is now 104
- Reflections on the research programme 105

08 Public policy research 108Ben Page, Ipsos MORI*

- Introduction 108
- Social research: a changing landscape 108
- Different kinds of evidence and evaluation 109
- New skills and strategies 109
- Communicating complex ideas 111
- Conclusion 111

09 Mapping attention in the digital era 114Andy Goll, Sparkler and Microsoft*

- The challenge 114
- The digital media hypothesis 114
- The brief 115
- The approach 116
- The findings 119
- The outcome 127
- Challenging received wisdom 128
- What next? 128

10 Digital world and private lives 130

Dr Michelle Goddard and Debrah Harding, the Market Research Society

The data landscape 130

The privacy landscape 131

The legislative landscape 133

Shaping the new social contract 138

Fair data 139

Conclusion 142